Restful Nights

When celebrations or seminars extend over several days, there is ample accommodation available. As Eva Mörwald explains, “A hotel room has long become more than just a place to sleep. Guests’ expectations and requirements have evolved, especially for business travelers who also use their rooms as workspaces.” Drawing on decades of experience in hospitality and guest experience, the hotel offers luxurious accommodation for discerning travelers, from Superior Double Rooms to Penthouse Suites on the top floor.

What is the secret to successful business meetings? A setting that is both calm and inspiring. Combined with attractive meeting spaces and opportunities to relax outside of these rooms, you will have the energy to fuel your next discussion or workshop. In short, it is all about finding the right balance and entrepreneurs will find it here in the Wagram region. Plus, the location is central and easily accessible from key business cities such as Vienna, Salzburg and Munich.

At MÖRWALD, work and enjoyment come together in a unique symbiosis.

Creating business meetings that are truly memorable.

One thing is certain: holding meetings amidst vineyards is far more effortless than in the hustle and bustle of the city. Anyone who has checked in for a business stay in the Wagram knows this. Distractions are minimal, aside from the tempting leisure activities in the expansive natural surroundings and the region's exceptional cuisine. For business professionals, this provides the ideal environment to let ideas flow. Whether in the meeting and seminar rooms of the new MÖRWALD Gutshof, the penthouse suites, the Herrenzimmer, the garden terrace, the rooftop bar, or the market hall, which can be converted into a conference space for seminars or congresses with up to 200 participants, everything you need is provided: technology, equipment, catering, and accommodation included.

On top of that, MÖRWALD offers a variety of leisure activities designed for relaxation and often serving as excellent team building experiences. Options include cooking classes, e bike or walking tours, cellar lane tours, historic tractor rides, or visits to renowned wineries in the Wagram, Wachau, Krems, or Kamp Valley. On request, winemakers can even come to the MÖRWALD Gutshof for private wine tastings. Convinced? Book your customized business arrangement at MÖRWALD today.

For 35 years, MÖRWALD has been a specialist in events, whether for intimate family weddings or grand gala banquets for up to 2,000 guests. Every celebration is planned and executed individually. At the MÖRWALD Gutshof, the historic barn, which once served as a coal storage and now houses the market hall, can be transformed into a party venue. The wine shop becomes a bar, the courtyard a prime location for receptions and aperitifs, and the penthouse suite serves as a dining room for private meals with friends, family or business partners.

Exclusive rental of the entire Gutshof allows corporate or private events to be celebrated in complete privacy. With ample overnight accommodations at the MÖRWALD Gutshof Hotel, festivities can easily extend into the next morning or day.
